Message

I am very delighted to know that Muktadhara Foundation Inc, is going to organize International Bangla Festival and Book Fair in New York from 2-5, July 2010. We are also happy to know that, Bangladesh Gayan O Srijanshil Prokashak Samity, a constituent of FBCCI, is co-operating in this event.

International Bangla Festival, 2010 and Book fair will be a great cultural reunion of bangle speaking people aboard. I appreciate the commanding role of Muktadhara for not only hosting this festival but also being one of the largest promoters of the Bengali culture and products. Through this festival and fair the expatriates Bangladeshis will be informed not only of our rich culture & heritage but also Bangladeshi products all over the world.

On behalf of the apex trade body of business community of Bangladesh, I would like to take the opportunity to offer the heartiest felicitation to Muktadhara Foundation for their efforts and dedication in organizing the fair.

I wish the Bangla Festival and Book Fair a grand success.
